Course Description MATH 337 is an introduction to the concepts of real analysis. The course covers standard material on the real number system, metric spaces, limits, sequences, functions, and continuity.

Text No text is required. Course notes will be provided in pdf format at <http://people.wku.edu/david.neal/337/>

Standard texts on Real Analysis or Advanced Calculus can be used for further reference.

Learning Outcomes

Successful students will show proficiency in writing detailed solutions to analysis problems, learning and writing formal analysis definitions, and learning and writing proofs to analysis theorems on topics that include

- (i) Ordered sets; the real number line; infimums and supremums
- (ii) Metric spaces including open, closed, and bounded sets
- (iii) Limits and convergence of sequences within metric spaces and on the real line
- (iv) Limits and continuity of functions within metric spaces and on the real line
- (v) Cardinality; denumerable and uncountable sets

Homework

Exercises will be assigned daily with some problems to be turned in for a grade. On these problems, students are expected to do their own work; plagiarism and allowing plagiarism are not allowed and will result in a grade of 0 for the assignment. A repeat offense will result in the offending students being dismissed from the class. Late homework will not be accepted for credit.

All problems will require you to write a proper mathematical proof. All proofs should be written elegantly and neatly in a formal mathematical style. Complete sentences of explanation are required. Do not simply write an equation; you must explain what the equation is giving and/or why it is being used. Moreover, all equations must be properly inset and aligned with no scratch outs.

Tests

Each test will be based on class lectures and assigned homework. The tests will be closed-book with no formula sheets allowed and no calculators allowed. Details of the tests will be outlined well in advance of the tests. The tests will be precisely as I outline them, with nearly all test questions given to you in advance. Therefore, I absolutely expect you to learn the material with no exceptions and no excuses. In addition, there may be some occasional quizzes. Any quiz score will contribute to the score on the subsequent test.

Tentative Test Dates

Test 1: Thurs Feb 15 Test 2: Thurs Mar 8 Test 3: Thurs Apr 12

Final Exam: Monday May 8, 1:00 – 3:00

Attendance Policy

Registration in this course obligates you to be regular and punctual in class attendance. Therefore attendance is required. If absences start occurring, then I will start giving quizzes with the score being part of the subsequent test. Absent students will receive a 0 for the quiz.

Make-Up Policy

Students are expected to take all tests and quizzes in class when they are given. I will not accommodate requests to re-schedule exams for students who wish to skip class to go do other activities. But if you must miss an exam due to a documented medical cause or tragedy, such as a heart attack, stroke, burst appendix, seizure, coma, broken femur, childbirth, earthquake, tornado, polar vortex, car wreck, kidnapping, spontaneous combustion, campus lockdown, etc., then I may consider giving you a make-up.

Grading Policy

In order to receive a passing grade for this class, you must demonstrate that you have learned the material and that you have learned it well. Grades will be weighted as follows:

Assignments: 20% Three Tests: 20% each Final Exam: 20%

A: Average $\geq 93\%$ B: $85\% \leq \text{Avg} < 93\%$ C: $75\% \leq \text{Avg} < 85\%$
D: $70\% \leq \text{Avg} < 75\%$ F: $\text{Avg} < 70\%$

At my discretion, there may be a slight curve to this grading scale.

Withdrawal Date

March 9, 2018 is the last day to withdraw from the course with a grade of W or to change enrollment from credit to audit.
