This article comes from the book of the same name and focuses on policies to alleviate “ghetto poverty.” Though the article is straight forward, consider the following points as a test of what you understand from your reading.

1. What is the EITC?

2. What are the three policies Wilson suggests to create public sector employment? How do they differ?

3. How might this policy be applied to rebuild New Orleans?

4. What peripheral programs does Wilson advocate to make the creation of new jobs possible?

5. What long term solutions does he offer (pg. 345)?

6.
