I would not change anything really.

Even if days are missed in class I would still like the opportunity to do the quizzes (obviously not for credit) but just so I'm able to know what is being tested at the time. Other than that, I really enjoy the class.

The weight of participation grade. I feel like I excelled in the French 101 but received a B because of my participation grade. I missed one class period and felt i volunteered enough.

Nothing really, the course is very thorough and well thought out.

I like having the syllabus set up the way it is so that it is possible to see what we need to do for homework as well as what activities were done that day and what will be done the next day (all in one location). It really helps stay on track even if I'm not present in the class.

The amount of French that is being spoken on a daily basis is fantastic

I like doing a bunch of quizzes.

I like how the tests are broken up into speaking tests and written.
