After giving directions or explaining something to the class in French, explain it in English so all classmates understand exactly what the teacher is saying.

I wish we use more French in class though it will definitely be a challenge to me. I often have a hard time following the professor when he entirely speaks in French, but It seems to me that my comprehension is improving every week. So, I think taking a challenge should not necessarily be a bad thing.

I would like to practice speaking more in class.

The biggest thing I would say is that it's helpful to have our tests when we go over them. Sometimes if I was deliberating between two answers, I can't remember which one I chose.

Student activities. The exercises we do in class stick to my memory more than the exercises I did by myself. So class activities are very helpful to me.

I really enjoyed the novel and the movie. I feel like they helped me a lot with oral comprehension as well as pronunciation.

Practicing speaking French and volunteering to do activities with the class.

I love this class! Overall, I've had a very positive experience. I love Dr. Love's teaching style because it helps me to really understand the content, not just try to memorize it, even though it's a lot of work. I also always feel like I can tell Dr. Love when something doesn't make sense. I feel like there's a really good balance of working on listening (and comprehending), speaking, writing, and grammar.
