

Presenters for the 5th Annual Sport Psychology Forum
Saturday, February 28, 2009
Tate Page Hall, Room 244

- 10:30 Welcome (Rick Grieve)
- 10:30-10:45 Frank Reding, Western Kentucky University, “Extending the Team Identification-Social Psychological Health Model to High School Football Fans, Part II: Results”
- 10:45-11:00 Jesse J. Courtney, Murray State University, “The Relationship between Sport Fan Dysfunction and Bullying.”
- 11:00-11:15 Tiffany Donahue, University of Alabama, “Perceptions of the Appropriateness of Sport Fan Physical and Verbal Aggression: Potential Influences of Team Identification and Fan Dysfunction”
- 11:15-11:30 David M. Normansell, Murray State University, “The Relationship between Sport Team Identification and Social Fear.”
- 11:30-11:45 Eric Bain-Selbo, Western Kentucky University, “Southern College Football Fans: A Form of Religion?”
- 11:45-12:30 Lunch
- 12:30-12:45 Dan Wann, Murray State University, “Applying the Team Identification – Social Psychological Health Model to an Elderly Population”
- 12:45-1:00 Dale Pease, Retired, University of Houston, “Contrast of RT Styles of Elite Fencers” (Co-Authors: Jay Lee, John Heil, Lee Branum-Martin, Danny Hughes)
- 1:00-1:15 Ryan Zapalac, Sam Houston State University, “Design Considerations for Measuring Sport Spectators and Fans’ Perceptions of Their Rights
- 1:15-1:30 Betsy Shoenfelt, Western Kentucky University, “TBA”
- 1:30-1:45 Rick Grieve, Western Kentucky University, “The Theory of Optimal Distinctiveness and Sport Team Identification”
- 1:45-2:00 Discussion